

the practically stylish guide to Halloween costumes: FLIGHT ATTENDANT

One of the most annoying things about Halloween is constantly having to explain your costume. Since flight attendants have to wear ID badges anyway, this is an easy fix to that problem! Print out this handy image, cut and paste your photo onto it and put it on a lanyard. No more confusion!

RESOURCES

Aviator wings: $3.99 at HalloweenCostumes.com - <http://bit.ly/1hM8qAZ>

Square silk scarves: $6.98-$19.99 at Target.com - <http://tgt.biz/1hM9uoJ>

INGREDIENT LIST

- Navy pencil skirt
- Navy blazer (optional)
- White button down shirt
- Navy or black pumps
- Silk square scarf
- Badge on a lanyard
- Small luggage (optional)
- Aviator wings pin (optional)

HOW TO STYLE

- Tuck the white shirt into your skirt.
- If you choose to wear a blazer, keep it buttoned.
- Double-knot the scarf at your neck .
- Wear your hair in a tight, low bun or otherwise kept out of your face.
- Minimize your jewelry.
- If you are going trick or treating, your “carry-on luggage” can double as your treat bag!